COMANITY

An inclusive programme for youth

What is it about?

The COMANITY project is a European transnational project that aims to develop a new role in youth work – the “Community Animateur”. The Animateur acts as a social mediator, aiming to bridge the gap between young people who feel they have been left ‘on the margins’ and ‘mainstream’ institutions.

Our ambitions

How to become a Community Animateur?

1

Develop your Emotional Intelligence

- Intra- and inter-personal skills, adaptability and resilience, affective competences
- More self-awareness of your own capacities
- Better management of group dynamics, including conflict resolution and facing adversity
- Collaborative and innovative methods to engage young people

2

Focus on Community Animateur specific competences

- Improved ability to advice, guide and support young people
- New approaches techniques: active listening techniques and art education methods
- More participation, inclusiveness and engagement of young people in your activities
- Using mapping, networking and mediation
- How to access, organise and manage resources efficiently
- Young people empowered to be active in their community

3

Digital competences and tools as driver for social inclusion

- Improved online resources organisation and management skills
- More communication and working tools knowledge
- New digital skills to digital programme and content creation
- Be more aware of the potential and challenges of digital citizenship via media literacy

Project partners

COMANITY is a project under Erasmus+ KA3 “Support for Policy Reform – Social inclusion through Education, Training and Youth”. It involves 9 partners from 8 European countries and runs for 24 months from December 2017 to November 2019.
